GV29 WOMEN THE POWER PARADIGM

A New Film Release by
Multi Award-Winning Indie Filmmaker Bob Bryan

Los Angeles, CA. (BWP Press) - GV29 WOMEN THE POWER PARADIGM reflects the complex realities of today's woman. Many contemporary women find that the paths to self-empowerment are lonely, confusing and difficult.

Women The Power Paradigm examines the perspectives and attitudes of six (6) unusual women on a quest for finding Emotional, Professional and Artistic fulfillment. These amazingly talented women have designed for themselves a methodology for achieving their goals of self-realization, regardless of life's omnipresent challenges and unpredictability. GV29 is a must-see film!

"I wanted GV29 to represent women who have found a clarifying methodology to accomplishing their desired goals. In all cases their quest is a heavy psychological lift, yet completely achievable if one is completely dedicated to change.

The challenge lies in acquiring a positive and powerful uplifting conscious belief system, implementing a personal development program (both physically and mentally), as well as courageously wrestling with, in some cases, subtle, yet personality defining programmed self-esteem issues.

Personal struggles with Fear, Pain, Power, Rage, Self-Confidence, Negativity, Defense of the Ego, Passion, Self-Expression, Laziness, and lack of Discipline and Training etc. are important factors that must be confronted, understood and overcome. The results ultimately integrated into one's toolbox concept of self, in order to be successful. Consistent sacrifices, setting priorities, organizing long and short-term goals must be made in order to achieve this next level of self-actualization.

As the Director of GV29, my desire is that my audiences will identify with this new Paradigm and be inspired to action by these Powerful Kick-Ass Women."
